

little later on upon reasonable terms. I am an artist by profession and the property is just situated far enough from the town to give me the quiet I need ~~for~~ while enabling me to be in close touch for sale of my work, when ever I have any thing to sell. <sup>or exhibit in New York.</sup> I understand that the property is standing idle today. If I have been correctly informed do you not think Mrs Hall, property is best protected by leasing
